

Sinaya - Always Pain

Even a majestic night facing the hopeless
I look to all sides and my sight is one by one moved by hate

Winners without wars
Nobody cares about a fight

you won't survive, without scars
On your mind, in your life
Humans feels the cold embrace
Faded in disgrace

Pain on your hands controlled denied brains

No hope, always pain
No hope, interests rights

Winners without wars

you won't survive, without scars
On your mind, in your life
Faded in disgrace
