

Sinaya – Infernal Sight

Sight, Sight, Sight Infernal Sight ... Infernal

This crazy world, what can we expect
From this, crazy world
Lies, wars, chaos and disorder
The world is sick and infernal
Want to take us away
From this, crazy world
Lies, wars, chaos and disorder

We live results of dreams
We live in a world of fictions

Infernal Sight

I need to build
I need to fight
I wanna end this illusion
There are so many illusions
Many sights

Sight, Sight, Sight Infernal Sight ... Infernal

This crazy world, what can we expect
From this, crazy world
Lies, wars, chaos and disorder
The world is sick and infernal
Want to take us away
From this, crazy world
Lies, wars, chaos and disorder

We live results of dreams
We live in a world of fictions

Infernal Sight
