

Sinaya - Obscure Raids

I see terror in your eyes
I'll take away your hope and your values
I miss to fucking shut him up
We are merciless killers

People willing to kill without control, and breathless
Truths that are hidden by the darkness
Souls willing to demonize me

Soul assassins, trapped souls
Sun is burning my fucking brain
Attacks at night and daylight
Attacks all the time

Stabbing the neck Stabbing the chest

Flames of fire got my hand
Tears of rage penetrates you
Entering your mind I've got nothing to lose
Obscure possession

Stab wounds on the soul
Cowards that attack in the dark
We're testing the obscure insanity
We're doing raids

Obscure raids

Released anger
Born to be wild
Obscure raids

That slow my soul
Forget who lived
Forget the death

Transparent ties
Surrounded sacrifice
Pieces of misery

Stabbing the neck
Stabbing the chest

Flames of fire got my hand
Tears of rage penetrates you
Entering your mind I've got nothing to lose
Obscure possession

Stab wounds on the soul
Cowards that attack in the dark
We're testing the obscure insanity
We're doing obscure raids
